View the artwork, chat with the students, and meet with instructor Doug Vollmer for an exciting and inspiring evening

GOMMEA
members, friends, and family are invited to a premiere of artwork designed by students at the Maine College of Art (MECA)
in Portland

This is an opportunity to view current and past artwork produced by students enrolled in a Natural History of Coastal Ecosystems
class. This multimedia body of work depicts a variety of marine organisms studied in three different ecosystems: rocky shore, salt marsh, and strand/dune.

Refreshments will be served
